

Mme Ruth Mestre, professeure de philosophie du droit à l'Université de Valencia, est accueillie par le laboratoire Droit et Changement Social au mois de juillet.

Elle animera deux séminaires à la frontière de la clinique juridique, de la théorie féministe du droit, et du droit pénal.

Le lundi 8 juillet

Reconceptualizing human trafficking for sexual exploitation,
de 14 à 16 heures, salle 220

Le mercredi 10 juillet

Access to justice and victims' right: the case for "de facto" locus standi, de 14 à 16 heures, salle 220 de la Faculté de droit

Les séminaires se tiendront en anglais

Mestre, Ruth

University of Valencia (Spain)

Courses

Ruth M. Mestre i Mestre is member of the Institut de drets humans de la Universitat de València and academic director of the legal clinic program. She holds a PHD in Law from the University of Valencia, and she is master in sociology of law (IISJ-Oñati) and master in legal theory (Académie Européenne de théorie du droit, Brussels). She has been Marie-Curie fellow at the Centre for research in ethnic relations at the University of Warwick (UK).

Her fields of research are Feminist legal theory, citizenship and migration and VAW. She is part of the European Network of Experts in the field of Gender Equality. She has participated in many international and national research projects in the field of migration, rights of women, trafficking, cultural diversity and FGM/C. With S. Johnsdotter coordinated recently FGM in Europe: An analysis of Court Cases, a report published by the European Commission-Directorate General-Justice (2016). Her publications include: "GJ vs Spain and access to justice for victims of Human Trafficking", Strasbourg Observers BLOG, 2016; "La protección cuando se trata de trata en el Estado español", Revista Interdisciplinar da Mobilidade Humana (Brasil, 2011); with S. Johnsdotter, "FGM in Europe: public discourse versus empirical evidence, International Journal of Law, Crime and Justice 2017; with Yanira Zúñiga (coords): Democracia y Participación política de las mujeres. Visiones desde Europa y América Latina, Tirant lo Blanch, València 2013.

Source : <http://www.iisj.net/en/profesores/mestre-ruth>